

COACHES WANTED

Serco Education are recruiting coaches from all areas of England, to join their Higher Apprenticeship Team....

We are looking for self-motivated people with experience of working in a leadership/management role in a school/academy who are interested in becoming a coach to provide support to our apprentices studying our Level 6 Chartered Manager Degree Apprenticeship (CMDA) for Schools and Level 4 School Business Professional Apprenticeship (SBPA) programmes.

The coach is a key role, supporting and guiding school business professionals in their learning journey to develop key skills and behaviours. As a coach you will provide one to one support in the learner's workplace as well as online, via email, skype, webinars etc.

You should have a level 5 qualification or above, desirable in School Business Management although not essential.

Having a recognised assessor award is desirable but if you don't have this, we will support you to complete the Certificate in Assessing Vocational Achievement.

We have both full-time and consultancy (working with just 1 or 2 students) positions available. We offer competitive rates plus benefits. Applicants will need to be prepared to travel to visit learners throughout their regions.

APPLY NOW!

If this is of interest, please email cmdaschools@serco.com to receive further information and a role specification.